

I oppose legislation that will restrict further access to diverse opinions and newsmakers by allowing greater consolidation of media outlets under single ownership umbrellas. This trend has already reduced the scope of public commentary and news coverage most Americans are receiving and is a very dangerous trend. Prevent further consolidation of control by the mega media outlets.